

Sunapee

Harbor
Magic
A Christmas Celebration

Saturday, December 6th 2008
1:00 - 5:30 pm

Celebrate the magic of Christmas by singing with the carolers, having a hot cocoa and taking a hay ride, participating in a workshop, visiting Santa or by strolling through the harbor. We hope to see you there!

1 - 4:30 pm/Pete's Shed - Silent Auction - Drop by to make a bid on over 60 wonderful donated items to support this community celebration. (Payment by check/cash only.)

1 - 5:30 pm Hot Delicious Food and Drinks

Warm up on the MV Kearsarge with some yummy treats or stop by the Lions Wagon to keep yourself warm from head to toe with hot coffee, cocoa, chili, hot dogs and much more!

2 pm/Harbor - Looney Lunge - Cheer on the loonies taking a winter splash in Lake Sunapee. Dr. Seuss character's welcome. Prizes for best costume! Sponsored by Sunapee Recreation.

2 - 5 pm/Boat Launch - Take a hay ride and enjoy a magical tour of the harbor.

2 - 5 pm- Nativity Scene/Choir - Enjoy the live outdoor nativity scene from Mt. Royal Academy.

3 - 5 pm/New London Agency - Santa's Visit - Watch for the fire truck as Santa and Mrs. Claus arrive in style to visit with the children. (The reindeer need this time to rest before the big day!)

Santa's Mailbox - Make sure Santa receive's your wish list and mail your letter to the North Pole at Pete's Shed. Santa's elves will be making a stop to pick them up so no postage is necessary. Please include your return address to help Santa respond.

5:00 pm/Harbor - Christmas Lighting Parade and Singing. During the parade, we will walk and sing with the carolers. Santa will wave his magic wand and the Harbor will light up! As we wish a farewell to Santa, and bring the joy of Christmas to the Grinch, the magic of the evening will fill all our hearts.

Santa's Workshops: Gingerbread Cookies, Christmas Stories, Wreath Decorating/ Holiday Cards, Crafts, Magician Performances, and Face Painting - Details on back.

Santa's Workshops: Gingerbread Cookies, Christmas Stories, Wreath Decorating/Holiday Cards, Crafts, Magician Performances, & Face Painting

Pete's Shed

1-5 pm

Gingerbread Cookies - Each child will decorate their own fresh baked gingerbread cookie. (FREE/Donations accepted, workshops run every 45 minutes starting at 1 pm, sign up required at Tattered Pages 763-2539.)

Christmas Stories -

Narrated and brought to life by local celebrities.

1:30 Brenda Huff/Mary Lyn Ray (Author signing of Christmas Farm)

2:30 Tim Puchtler/Heidi Carney

3:30 Howard Sargent/John Mapley

4:30 Michael Kennedy/Muriel Bergeron

Thank you to the Sunapee Seniors for a special treat for the children after the reading.

Wreath Decorating & Holiday Cards - Design a wreath/make an arrangement ($10-$20) and/or holiday cards ($18/12 cards).

Drop in.

Wild Goose

1-4 pm

Magician Performances -

Do you believe in magic?

Face Painting - Show your holiday flare by having your face painted.

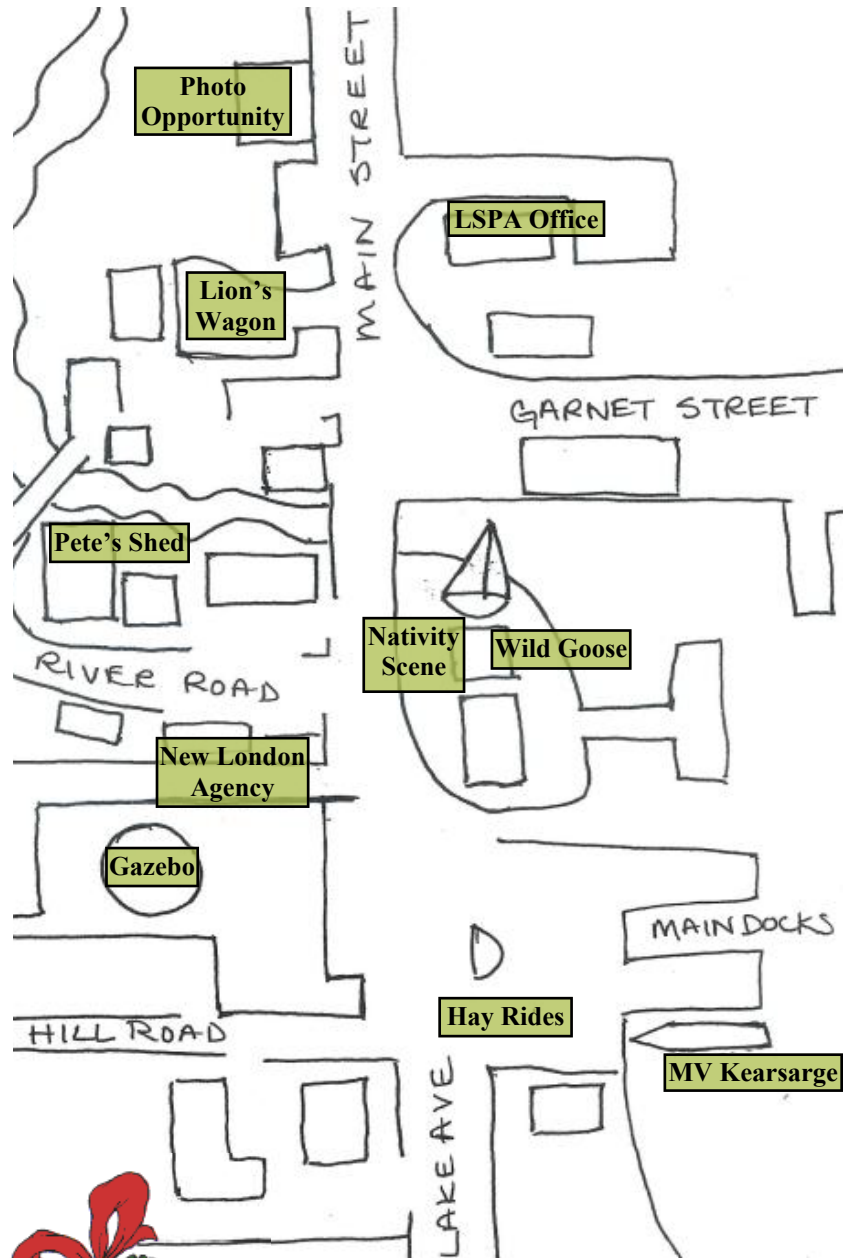

Donations - The Sunapee Food Pantry is requesting condiments and cleaning products. To view a complete list of needed items go to: nhfoodbank.org. We gladly accept these items as donations for the cookie and craft workshops.

Toys for Tots donation boxes will also be located throughout the Harbor for your unwrapped items.

LSPA Office

1-5 pm

Crafts - Stop by the LSPA office to make a recycled beautiful ornament, cards, gift tags and more. (FREE/Donations accepted, drop in.) Sponsored by the LSPA Office and Abbott Library.

Local Shops in the Harbor will be open - Harbor Gallery, Wild Goose, Prospect Hill, Deck Dock and Tattered Pages.